

Administrative and Public Law Section

2026 Summer Interns

2026 Designated Summer Internships in Administrative Law

Devin Glass

South Texas College of Law: Fifteenth Court of Appeals

Devin Glass embodies the Sam Houston State University motto, "The measure of a life is its service." Serving in the Army National Guard for six years from age 17, and joining the Houston Fire Department at age 19, provided Devin with a wealth of soft and hard skills, from interpersonal communications, to attention to detail, to performance under literal and figurative fire. Balancing his military and fire department service with a traditional education timeline, Devin earned both an undergraduate degree and a Master of Public Administration at Sam Houston State University at ages 22 and 24, respectively. Desiring to better advocate for those he served, Devin now pursues a legal career. Devin attends the South Texas College of Law, where he served as a 1L Representative to the Student Bar Association and as Social Media Chair of the Veterans Law Students Association (VLSA), and will serve as the VLSA Treasurer for the 2026-27 term.

2026 Designated Summer Internships in Administrative Law

Gerald Jones

Baylor Law School: Office of the Attorney General, Administrative Law Division

Gerald Jones is a rising 2L at Baylor University School of Law. He was born and raised in Denton, Texas. This summer, he will be interning with the Office of the Attorney General. He hopes to gain experience with administrative law and appellate advocacy this summer. He is honored to have been selected through the Administrative & Public Law Section.

2026 “Create Your Own Experience” Stipend for Internships in Administrative and Public Law

Emily Hopson

Thurgood Marshall School of Law: Office of the Attorney General, Houston Office

Emily Hopson is a second-year law student at Thurgood Marshall School of Law; she is interested in working at the intersection of emerging technology, regulatory affairs, and digital civil liberties. Prior to law school, she graduated from Texas Tech University and served in the U.S. Air Force’s Cyber Operations division, where she developed an understanding of cyber security and network infrastructure. This unique background drives her passion for data privacy advocacy and protecting consumer rights in the digital space. Currently, she balances her academic pursuits with community engagement initiatives, working to make legal education and resources more accessible to underserved populations. Outside of the classroom, Emily is a proud parent who enjoys reading horror books and playing games with her son.

2026 “Create Your Own Experience” Stipend for Internships in Administrative and Public Law

Brooke Thoendel

Texas A & M School of Law: Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, Dallas Office

Brooke Thoendel is a rising third-year law student at Texas A&M University School of Law. She serves as Symposium Editor of the Journal of Property Law, Vice President of the Sports Law Society, and placed in the top ten at the ABA Negotiation Nationals competition. This summer, Brooke is gaining valuable public-interest experience as a law clerk with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. Originally from Bennington, Nebraska, she plans to begin her legal career in Texas following graduation.